PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The AeroBand Cotton Calico Triangular Bandage is a universal first aid staple designed to provide practical limb support and immobilisation when it matters most. Built for versatility, it can be applied as a standard arm sling, elevation sling, broad bandage or folded bandage to help stabilise an injured wrist, arm, shoulder, chest or leg while care is arranged. Its generous cut and soft cloth finish make it suitable for workplaces, schools, community sport and emergency response kits.

Made from quality cotton calico, the cloth is strong yet breathable for comfortable wear during transport or short-term rest. The fabric is washable and reusable, supporting economical kit maintenance and helping reduce unnecessary waste in training and workplace settings. A plain weave delivers dependable drape and knot security without bulky seams, so users can position and tie the cloth quickly and confidently.

The large 110 x 110 x 155 cm size offers ample coverage for adults and can be folded to fit smaller users. The triangular cut allows quick configuration into multiple slings and bandage types, while the smooth edges are easy on skin and clothing.

Across clinics, first aid rooms and mobile kits, AeroBand's cotton calico triangular bandage delivers the dependable utility, ready for everyday incidents, drills and compliance audits.
